A unique opportunity to work with early childhood educators in programs with limited resources, complex issues, and a desire to take our work with children and families to a deeper level.

- Growing a culture of inquiry:
Planning curriculum from teacher observations
- Exploring images of children
- Thinking of the role of the teacher in different ways
- Telling stories and the role of pedagogical documentation
- Creating environments that reflect our beliefs and values about children and the learning process
- Building relationships with families
- Mentoring teachers for reflective practice

Location: Plaza 500 Hotel 12th and Cambie, Vancouver, BC

October 27- 29, 2005.

Cost: $70 for all days (includes lunch and coffee break)
