Pedagogical documentation is the practice of studying children's learning, understanding, values and culture, and then making what is studied visible to children, parents, and the community at large. Documentation occurs in many forms, for instance panels of visual images and written text, video or DVD formats, books or pamphlets. The course will offer combination of illustrated lectures, small group discussions, hands-on workshops, plenary discussions, and group events which act as provocation for documentation.

Dr. Carol Anne Wien's Bio

Carol Anne Wien is an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Education, York University, Toronto, Ontario. She is the author of Developmentally Appropriate Practice in 'Real Life' about child care teachers and of Negotiating Standards in the Primary Classroom about teachers K-grade 3. Her research interests explore conditions that support teachers' professional development in offering creative, emergent, inquiry- and arts-based curriculum.
